

SLHSCP Pathfinder Developments

Jill O'Boyle
Technology Enabled Care Service Manager

Andy Robertson
Telecare Development Officer

South Lanarkshire Community Alarm Service

Population approx. 321,000

Approx. 8,900 community alarm service users

24,000 alarm activations monthly

£1.65 weekly charge

SLHSCP responders and contractor install telecare

SLHSCP responder team provide response

Working together to improve health and wellbeing
in the community – with the community

Community Alarm Service Redesign

Working together to improve health and wellbeing
in the community – with the community

The Vision for Blantyre

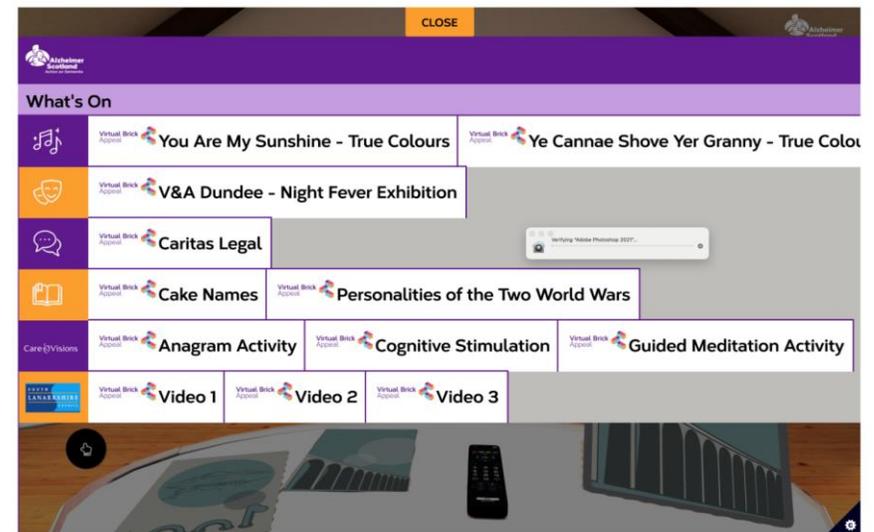

- Brand new State-of-the-Art, Health and Social Care hub in the heart of Blantyre

- 20 transitional beds for adult and older people
- A centre of excellence
- A community-facing hub featuring: a café; demonstration site
- 20 technology enable homes for adults and older people

Working together to improve health and wellbeing
in the community – with the community

Virtual Resource Centre

Working together to improve health and wellbeing
in the community – with the community

Thank you!
Any questions?

Contact:

jill.o'boyle@lanarkshire.scot.nhs.uk

andy.robertson@southlanarkshire.gov.uk