

LEARNING NETWORK WEBINAR SERIES – 25 MAY 2020
Exploring Digital Services in Care Homes and Nursing Homes

Karen Hedge, National Director
www.scottishcare.org

Moira Mackenzie, Deputy CEO
www.dhi-scotland.com

Context

“We are the guardians of our older people. It is a huge responsibility”.

Frontline care worker
Fragile Foundations Report into mental health of care staff

Tech and Data in Practice (Pre-Covid-19)

- Monitoring Vital Signs
- Wearables
- Improving Delayed Discharge
- EMAR
- Electronic Care Planning
- Accessible Banking
- Electronic Call Monitoring
- Staffscanner

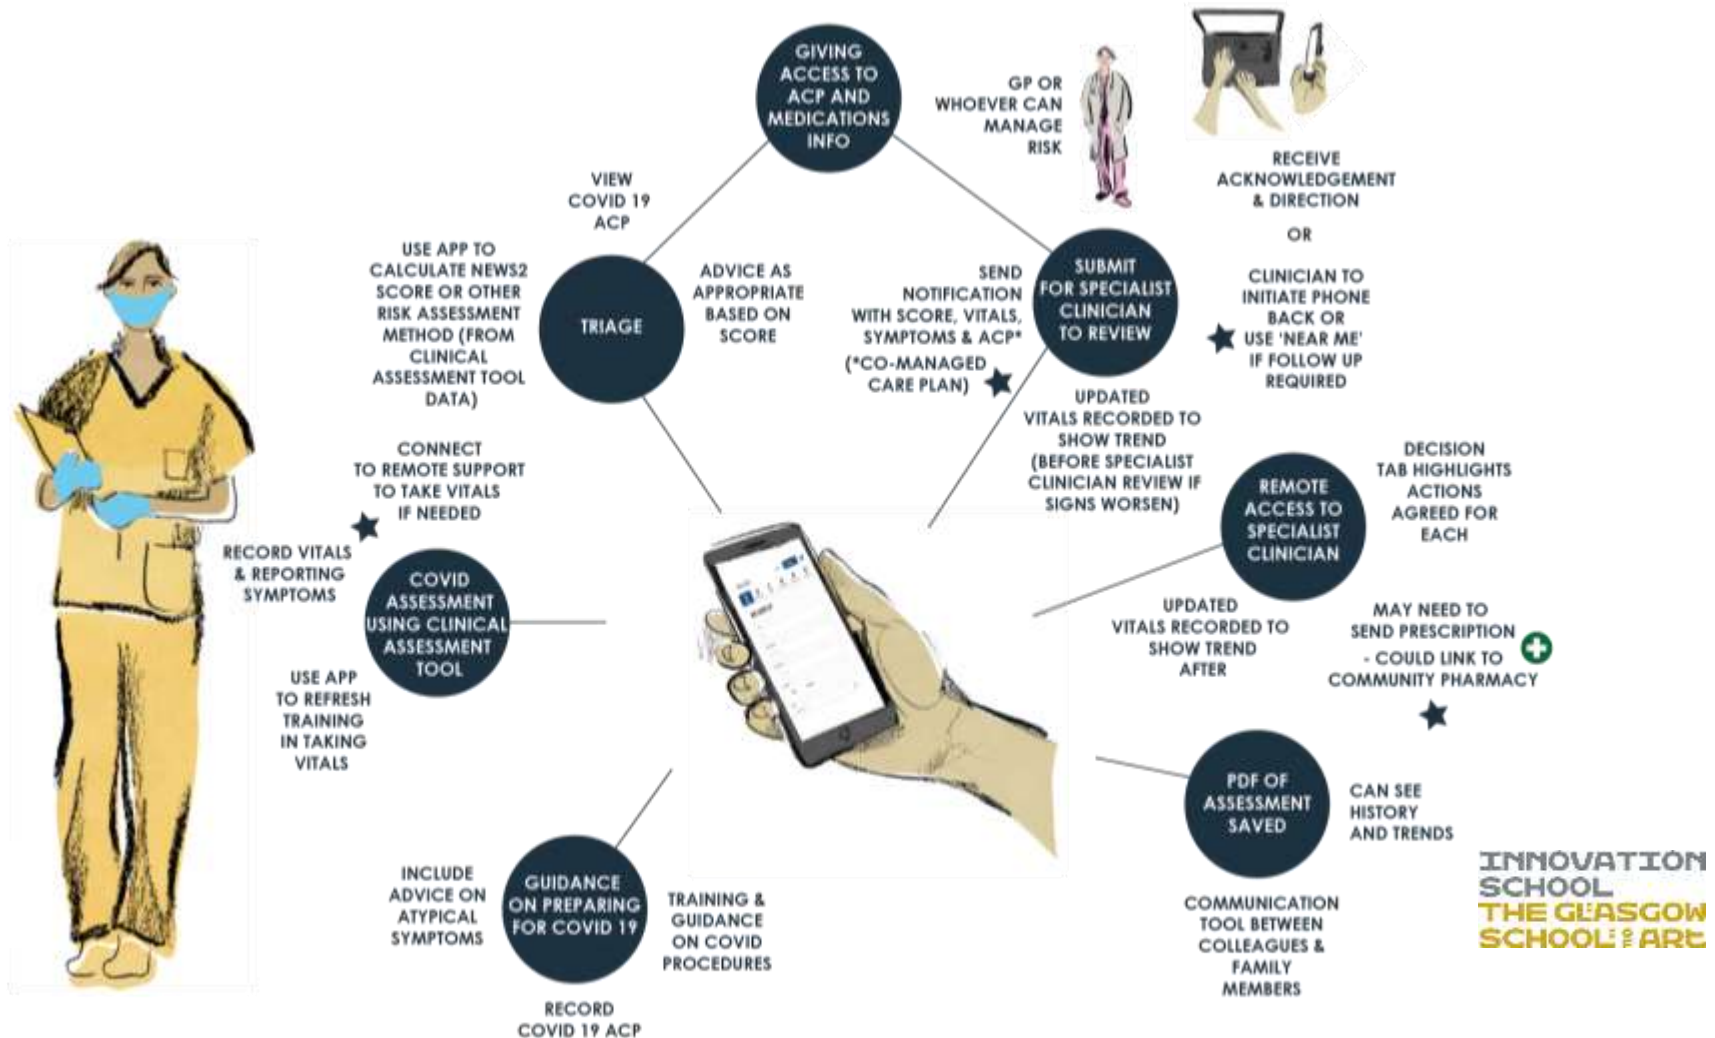

Scottish Care

Voice of the independent care sector

A Human Rights Charter for Technology and Digital in Social Care.

As designers, developers, policy analysts, human rights practitioners, politicians, service providers, workers and managers and those who use social care supports, we affirm that the use of technology in the care and support of people in Scotland:

Scoping of Digital Support for Care Homes & Nursing Homes

Clinical Assessment Tool

Assessment Wireframes with Nursing and Non-Nursing Versions

Test of Change to complete in May 2020

Evaluation involving staff & volunteer GP feedback in place

Covid-19 Assessments requiring clinical top cover being gathered and reviewed

